APPENDIX.

REPORT ON PERIODICALS.

We, your committee, beg leave to submit the following: We recommend the Alabama Baptist and Foreign Mission Journal to all our people as representatives of our views on the mission question. We also endorse Kind Words as a good Sabbath School paper.

J. L. JOINER, Chairman.

There being no report on State Missions, we thought the worth, work, and importance of our State Board, and our worthy secretary, W. B. Crumpton, of two much importance to be dropped from the pages of the minutes. We regard State Mission work as the hub of all mission enterprises; therefore it should have the fostering care of the entire Association, of every church and of every individual Christian. For importance of said work see report of the Corresponding Secretary for 1892.

CLERK.

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS.

In response to the duties assigned us, we submit the following in lieu of a report, which should have been read at the Association. Our Home Board located at Atlanta, Ga., is doing a work of which the denomination should be humbly thankful, proving their gratitude by willing and liberal contributions to this noble work. To inspire confidence, we only need to acquaint ourselves with the Board of Managers, and their faithful Secretary, Rev. I. T. Titchmarsh and his faithful assistant Rev. J. W. Jones, with their reports to the S. B. Convention, with statistical table, etc.

Dear brethren, we only want information on these lines to inspire confidence and to induce liberality on our part. As the State Work is the hub, the work of the Home Board is the frame work of the wheel upon which the Gospel is to be given to the ends of the earth.

Dear brethren, let each of us do our part of this great work of giving the Gospel to the world, that the fullness of the Gentiles may be brought in, and the return of our Savior hastened. So mote it be. Amen.

MODERATOR AND CLERK.

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Your Committee on Foreign Missions submit the following: The subject of Foreign Missions has been prominently before the people of the Carey Association for many years. The name Carey itself is strongly suggestive of foreign missions, and shows that the founders of the Carey Association were desirous of emulating the example of William Carey, the eminent English missionary, whose name is almost a synonym for foreign missions, and in honor of whom our Association is named. Claiming to be missionaries and being members of the Carey Association, it might be supposed that we were also very zealous missionaries, but such is far from being the case. While we are all missionaries by profession, many of us, probably a majority of us, are not so by practice. When we examine our statistics we find that about seventeen cents per capita is all we contribute to the cause of missions, divided among the State, Home and Foreign Mission Boards. Is this small contribution the best we can do on account of abject poverty? We all know that this is not the case, because it is a well known fact that we individually waste many times the above named small sum each year on luxuries, many of which are worse than useless. Again, can it be that we are afraid our contributions are misapplied? It cannot be this, because the Boards give an account of where they place all contributions, and surely we cannot think that those consecrated men who have made a living sacrifice of their lives, laboring far from home and kindred in unfriendly climes and among strange people, could have any other object in view than doing the work of the Master, and in obeying his command to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.

We do not wish to worry the people on this point, but we are convinced that a majority of us are lacking in missionary spirit and enterprise, and do not think of the great work of foreign missions as we should. We wish to bring the subject home to the heart of each individual member of the Carey Association, to think whether or not it is our duty to help teach all nations, either by going ourselves or helping others to go.

Our Baptist missionaries are struggling to establish Christianity in Italy, Japan, China, Africa, Brazil and Mexico. In all of these countries there are only a few missionaries among many millions of people, and they often encounter violent opposition and persecution; consequently the missions are not in as good condition as we wish, but we should never falter in our duty but continue to have faith.

The great body of the Baptists of the world are to be found in our Southern States, and it devolves upon us to contribute largely to propagate Christianity from a Baptist standpoint among the people of foreign countries.

E. A. PHILLIPS, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Your Committee submit the following: For reasons explainable we failed to make any appointment contract with anyone until in the summer when we appointed Eld. W. T. Davis evangelist and colporteur at a salary of $40.00 per month, to be paid by the Treasurer out of the funds retained for said work, as per report of said evangelist.

E. R. WOOD,
A. P. OSLIN,
A. P. THOMPSON,
W. P. ARNETT,
JACOB LINSEY, Committee.

In the absence of a report on Bible and Colportage work, the Moderator and Clerk were instructed to prepare a report to appear in the minutes, hence we submit the following:

Whereas the Bible and Colportage Board, located at Opelika, Ala., is the creature of the Alabama Baptist State Convention, which is the creature of the churches; and whereas it is charged with the duty and responsibility of supplying the people with Bibles and Testaments, also with Baptist and Sabbath School literature, and as their means are limited and their work is of the utmost importance, we recommend our churches to order their Sabbath School literature through our Board, as the small profit will be used in our own work. As we understand it, the work of this Board is missionary work of the highest and most important character. Will the churches of this Association contribute of their means commensurate with the pressing necessities of the work?

CLERK AND MODERATOR.

As there is no report on the State of the Churches, I take the authority to insert a special request in lieu thereof, viz: That the churches in the future state definitely what disposition they want made with the money sent up to the Association by the messengers. Responses to this request will save the Finance Committee and Treasurer from trouble, and the body from confusion.

J. A. BELL, Treasurer.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

We, your Committee on Temperance, beg leave to submit the following report: The subject of Temperance has been agitating the minds of our greatest men and women for ages and ages, our strongest minds have been employed as well as much treasure for the purpose of suppressing the use of intoxicating drink; but to a great extent their best efforts have in a measure proved futile. Yet we are of the opinion that in some respects there is an improvement in this line; but when we take the figures we are made to wonder if indeed strong drink is on the increase or decrease. Some argue that prohibition laws are a failure, but this is only a pretense upon the part of those who are opposed to prohibition, for the facts show in prohibition districts it is reduced to the jug business, whereas when there is no prohibition it is on the barrel business. In order to have prohibition laws enacted our legislature must be impressed with the necessity of such legislation, and they will only be thus impressed by public sentiment, hence the great necessity of a good moral sentiment at home which lies behind our representatives. This can only be done in and through the influence of the church. So long as church members visit drinking saloons we need not look for the much needed reform on temperance, but if God's people will only wake up to the evils of intemperance and put their foot upon it, then shall there be good news to all people.

R. J. ADAMSON, Chairman.

W. T. DAVIS, Evan. and Colp.

Whereas, the Evangelistic and Colportage Work is greatly needed in our bounds, and whereas immediately following the session of our body is the most opportune time for said work; therefore be it

Resolved, That Elder W. T. Davis be continued in the work for such time as there is money in the treasury to pay him for his time and labor, when the matter will be turned over to the Executive Committee.

Resolved, That we, the laymen of the Carey Association, recommend that the ministers in the bounds attend the Ministers Institute at Birmingham, if possible, so that they may thereby better prepare themselves as teachers, and we thereby pledge our co-operation and assistance.

EX. COMMITTEE.

Resolved, That hereafter any member who leaves before the adjournment of the session without permission of the body, shall not have his name to appear in the minutes.

CORRESPONDING LETTER.

To our Sister Associations:

Brethren—We have just closed another session of the Carey Association. We held a very interesting session, but not so good as we had hoped.

Dear brethren, visit us often, and let us pray together and counsel together, that we may be made to more thoroughly understand our business and duty as Baptists; that we may be able to battle for the Master's cause in our midst, and use every possible means in our power to send the Gospel to earth's remotest bounds. We have welcomed your correspondents, and in return send brethren to meet with you.

May God bless the heralds of His Cross everywhere.

CLERK,

CONSTITUTION.

1. This Association shall meet annually as an advisory council, and shall be composed of messengers chosen by the churches of this union, and all regularly ordained ministers of our faith and order within the bounds of the body.

2. Each church shall be entitled to two messengers, irrespective of numbers, and one for every additional fifty thereafter over fifty.

3. The messengers and ministers thus convened shall be denominated the CAREY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

4. This Association shall have a Moderator and Clerk, who shall be chosen by the members present at each session, and shall be of the body, holding their offices until the next election. The Clerk shall also be Treasurer of the Association.

5. The churches of this union shall express in their letters the names of their messengers and their postoffices, Sabbath of meeting, amount of contributions, number baptized, received by letter, restored to fellowship, dismissed, excommunicated and dead since the last session of this Association.

6. No act of the Association shall be binding on the Churches, but it shall be its duty to give advice in matters of difficulty and endeavor to preserve the union of the Churches.

7. If any churches desire to be admitted into this union they shall petition by letter and messengers, and upon examination, if found orthodox and orderly, shall be received by the Association.

8. Any church may withdraw from this Association at discretion, or, on application, may obtain a letter of dismission.

9. This Association shall use her own discretion as respects the cause of missions, leaving the churches and members to exercise their own opinion in such cases.

10. If any church in this union shall become offended with a sister church in point of faith or practice, it shall be the duty of the aggrieved church to endeavor to reclaim the church thus offending, and if satisfaction cannot be obtained the aggrieved church shall then call in the aid of one or two other churches to act with the first two assisting churches; and it shall be the duty of the churches thus called to investigate and decide upon the matter of dealing and to report the same to the Association; and if the said accused church be as guilty as charged, the Association shall withdraw from her.

11. This Association may correspond with other Associations and Conventions of the same faith and order, and withdraw her correspondence at discretion.

12. Amendments to this Constitution may be made by two-thirds of the members in session.

13. This Association may have power to adjourn to any time and place she may deem most convenient.

ABSTRACT OF PRINCIPLES.

1. We believe in only one true and living God and that there are three persons in the Godhead, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

2. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the word of God and the only rule of faith and practice.

3. We believe in the doctrine of eternal and particular election.

4. We believe in the doctrine of original sin and the impotency of man to recover himself from the fallen state he is in by his own free will and ability.

5. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ.

6. We believe that God's elect shall be called, regenerated and sanctified by the Holy Ghost, and that the saints shall persevere in grace and never finally fall away.

7. We believe that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ, and that true believers are the only proper subjects of the ordinances, and that immersion only is baptism.

8. We believe in the resurrection of the dead and a general judgment, and that the punishment of the wicked will be everlasting and the joys of the righteous will be eternal.

9. We believe that no minister has the right to administer ordinances only such as are called of God and have come under the imposition of hands of a presbytery, and are in fellowship in the churches of which they are members.

RULES OF DECORUM.

1. This Association shall be opened and closed with prayer.

2. Call for letters from churches and enroll the names of messengers.

3. Proceed to the election of Moderator and Clerk.

4. Call for petitionary letters from churches desiring admission into this body.

5. Appoint committees on preaching and finance.

6. Receive correspondents.

7. DUTIES OF MODERATOR.—It shall be the duty of the Moderator to call the members to order before the Association; to receive and submit all questions regularly moved, and announce the result; to enforce the observance of decorum in debate among the members, and in general to perform all the duties incumbent upon a presiding officer.

8. DUTIES OF CLERK.—It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Association to keep a fair record of the proceedings; to notify committees of their appointment; to preserve the papers belonging to the Association, and to attend to the printing of the Minutes, for which he shall receive a reasonable compensation.

9. DUTIES OF MEMBERS.—Any member rising to speak shall address the Moderator. 2. Any member, in speaking, shall confine himself to the subject under consideration. 3. No member shall speak more than thrice on the same subject without permission from the Moderator. 4. No member will be permitted to indulge in talking or whispering, or any indecorous conduct, to the annoyance of the body in time of debate. 5. No member shall absent himself from the body without permission of the Moderator.

10. These rules may be altered by a majority of the members at a regular session of this body.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

1. The Moderator shall call the meeting to order.
2. Read the letters and enroll the names of messengers.
3. Elect a Moderator.
4. Elect a Clerk and Treasurer.
5. Receive correspondents from sister Associations.
6. Moderator appoint Committees on Preaching, and Finance.
7. Read abstract of Principles, Constitution and of Rules of Decorum.
8. Call for petitionary letters.
9. Appoint Correspondents to Associations and Conventions.
10. Call for Reports of Standing Committees.
11. Approve places of holding Districts meetings.
12. Appoint a person to write the corresponding letters.
13. The Preaching Committee to report who shall preach the introductory sermon at next session.
14. Hear the report on Finance and Treasurer's Report.
15. Appoint time and place of holding the next session of this Association.
16. Consider resolutions that may be entertained by the body.
17. Miscellaneous business.

On motion this plan may be suspended and new business introduced, or the order may be changed to suit the convenience of the body.
